RULES OF THE GAIL BORDEN PUBLIC LIBRARY.

HOURS.—The library is open from 9 o'clock a. m. to 9 o'clock p. m.

Sundays—Reading-room only, from 1:30 o'clock p. m. to 6 o'clock p. m.

READING-ROOM.—Every inhabitant of the town of Elgin shall be entitled to the use of the library and reading-room, in accordance with the regulations of the Board of Directors.

Persons visiting the library and reading-room are expected to be orderly, quiet and clean.

CIRCULATING DEPARTMENT.—Every householder or tax payer of the town of Elgin, upon signing written application and agreement on form furnished by the librarian, is entitled to a numbered and registered card.

All other persons, residents of the town of Elgin, by furnishing a satisfactory guarantee on form supplied by the librarian, or depositing the sum of $5.00, shall also be entitled to a numbered and registered card.

Non-residents may draw books upon the payment in advance of $2.50 for one year or $1.50 for six months.

Persons in the town temporarily can obtain books by making a deposit of a sum equal in value to the book desired, and payment of 3c. per day for the use thereof.

All books are to be returned within two weeks of the date of delivery; but books of a recent purchase marked "seven day books" must be returned within one week. Whenever a book is drawn or returned the card must be presented.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES.—No person having any form of contagious disease in his residence or family, shall be permitted to receive books. And any person in possession of books belonging to the library and on whose premises contagious disease exists, must report the same to the librarian before returning them, and abide her instruction as to their disposal.

NUMBER OF VOLUMES.—One book may be drawn at a time, which must be returned before the second may be taken.

All teachers teaching in the town of Elgin shall be entitled to a special teacher's card with a limit of five books.

A card holder making a special study of a subject may draw a limited number of books at one time at the discretion of the librarian.

FINES.—Each day's delay on all books retained beyond the prescribed time, shall subject the holder of the card on which they are drawn to a fine of three cents.

LOSS OR INJURY.—All injuries to books beyond ordinary wear, and all losses, shall be made good to the satisfaction of the librarian. All books not returned within two weeks of the prescribed time shall be regarded as lost, and shall be charged to the borrower. If any volume lost or injured forms part of a set the whole set shall be replaced by the person liable, he taking the damaged set.

The holder of any card having fines and losses charged against him is debarred the privileges of the library until the same are made good.

A failure to comply with the above rules will forfeit the privileges of the library until reinstated by the library board.

Adopted by Board of Directors, Dec. 10th, 1897.

INFORMATION FOR READERS.

CLASSIFICATION.—The books are arranged on the shelves and in the classed list according to the Decimal classification of Mr. Melvil Dewey, of the New York State Library.

The field of knowledge is divided into nine main classes, and these are numbered by the digits one to nine. Cyclopedias, periodicals, etc., so general in character as to belong to no one of these classes, are marked naught and form a tenth class. Each class is similarly divided into nine divisions, general works belonging to no division having naught in place of the division number. Divisions are similarly divided into nine sections, and the process is repeated as often as necessary. Thus 512 means class 5 (Natural Science), division 1 (Mathematics), section 2 (Algebra), and every Algebra is numbered 512. Since each subject has a definite number, it follows that all books on any subject must stand together.

FINDING LIST.—The finding-list is in two divisions. First, a classed list in which the books are arranged according to the divisions of the classification, an index to which will be found at the back of the book. Second, an alphabetical author and title list of all the books in the library except German books and books for young people. These are arranged alphabetically in the classed list.

TO FIND A CERTAIN BOOK—If the author or title of a given book is known consult the alphabetical list. If books on a given subject are required consult the subject index at the end of the book. If the word desired is not found look under a similar or more general heading.

BOOKS MUST BE APPLIED FOR by the number given at the right of the column in the finding list.

FICTION is included in the author and title list but can be distinguished from books in other classes by its number, e. g. a book on oil painting by Collins would be marked 751 C69. 751 being the class number for all works on oil painting and C69 the number to distinguish Collins book on oil painting from other works on the same subject. If, however, Collins had written some book of fiction there would be no class number, but simply the authors number C69. Thus, whenever an author's number, which consists of the first letter or letters of the author's name, followed by some numbers, stands alone, not preceded by a class number, the reader may know the work is fiction.

GERMAN BOOKS.—All literary books that are written in German, whether translations from other languages or originals, are classed under German literature and so arranged on the shelves, but in the finding list will be found under Deutsche buecher. In the classed list under German literature will be found the English translations of German works and works on German literature.

GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS.—Some of the documents in the Congressional set have been specially brought out. When possible the exact number of the document has been given, but when there were too many to mention, reference has been made to the check list of government documents, to be found in the reference room, in which all the numbers will be found.

Books marked * are in the reference department and do not circulate.
